++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Much milder than of late, with some sunny spells.

Today:
Murky in places initially, with low cloud, mist and fog slowly clearing to sunny spells in a brighter and much milder day than of late. Perhaps turning cloudier in the west during the afternoon, with the odd spot of rain. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Fine during the evening, giving way to a wetter and windier end to the night. Milder than of late, although temperatures dipping over surviving snow. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tuesday:
Bright and breezy, with sunny spells and perhaps the odd shower, with these showers more likely over the Pennines and perhaps in the south for a time in the afternoon. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Changeable and often rather windy, with some rain possible on all days, generally followed by sunnier interludes. Temperatures falling to nearer-normal for a time, with some overnight frosts returning.
